

Andrew GottWorth

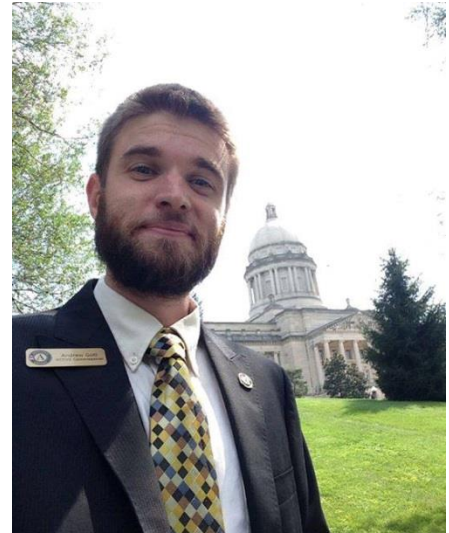

Youth Commissioner

Professional Life:

Training Assistant (August 2016 – present)

Graduate Research Assistant (August 2014 – present)

Admissions Counselor (January 2013 – June 2014)

Education:

Bachelor of Science in Physics from Western Kentucky University, Masters of Environmental studies from Kentucky State University

Family Information:

From Elizabethtown, currently living in Frankfort; married to Lauren since April 2016

Are You a National Service Alum: Yes! City Year Milwaukee - 2010

Passions: Youth development, teen leadership, education, mental health, and the outdoors.

Favorite quote: “Nobody made a greater mistake than he who did nothing because he could do only a little.” - Edmund Burke

“I serve as a KCCVS Commissioner because I love volunteerism and service. I understand how important it is for those with the ability to help to support those in the need of help. I am quite grateful to serve as a commissioner in order to assist with facilitating this volunteerism and service.”

